

Dublin Pride Parade (June 2024)

This is a transcript of text in the video titled "Pride (June 2024)".

Happy Pride.

Another amazing Pride. Great day. It was a bit rainy, but we made the most of it.

It's been an amazing day. Joyful celebration, thrilled to be here with so many people from the Central Bank of Ireland.

Pride is, it's love, It's protest. It's remembrance. It's solidarity.

It's all those things. It's wonderful.

The engagement with everybody turning out really made me proud. Brilliant to see so many people here for Pride.

We've come so far in terms of achieving the level of equality that we have now because it's really important for inclusion, for the community to feel supported.

It's important to show allyship.

I think it's important to honour those who have fought for diversity, equity and inclusion.

Happy to be here representing myself, and pride this year, it's been great.

It was amazing for everyone to get together.

Happy Pride to everyone.

See you next year.
